the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 1999). The prevalence of mental health problems has increased in the general population, and the incidence of mental health problems has increased in the prison population.

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the mental health needs of prisoners. The Department of Health (2000) has published a strategy for mental health services, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners. Panthers on Parade

Although no one would have expected it, the show this year was stolen by two of its own hosts, Trevor Paulus and Curt Sisco. Trevor and Curt entertained the audience by performing a skit called "The Princess". The idea was for the skit to merely stall for time so the next act could have time to get ready. However, the skit became the high-point of the show. The rest of the evening was spent watching and listening to skits, solos, instrumentals, DG, and group performances. We're looking forward to next year to see all the talents performed in another "Panthers on Parade".

→ Members of "Change of Mind", Mitch Evers and Joe Hossler really get into their performance.

→ J DG gives it their all as they sing "Kyrie".

Mickey Marks and Rhonda Yoder have a little disagreement over an answer during "Rock Steady".

Judie Johnson portrays her talent by playing the piano.

"The Pricess" was a skit between performances by two of

NORTHWOOD SPIRIT CARRIES VICTORIES

With the school colors being red and black, you'll find the student section completely outfitted in the appropriate school colors ready to yell and support whichever athletic team they are there to see. Whether you are there as a member of the Pep Club of just part of the crowd, the purpose and goal of each is the same . . . to cheer the NorthWood team onto a victory. This was shown to be true at the Goshen vs. NorthWood game; where Goshen, the almost assured victor, was defeated by the Panthers. The spirit shown by the crowd was said to have lit the spark that gave the team the fire to win. The students show their spirit also in the way they dress or just yelling and screaming to show their support. The week of every important game you'll find NorthWood students dressed according to the day.

THE DOME!

The Hoosier Dome . . . is the dream of every high school football team in the state of Indiana. This past season that dream became a reality for NWHHS. At the start of the '86 season the Panthers had set an obtainable goal; to make it all the way to the championship game. This was also a dream shared by the local fans. Although NWHHS was defeated 12-0 by Indy Cathedral the Panthers did not leave empty handed.

Phil Wilson was named the "Phil N Eskew Mental Attitude Award" winner for the 1986 3A football championships. 1986 was truly the YEAR OF THE PANTHERS.

— Prep-player of the week, Brad Troxel, leads the team onto the field carrying the Black Dot Society Flag.

Iran Scandal

Rocks White House

It all began in the summer of 1985. David Kimche of the Israeli Foreign Ministry told national-security advisor Robert McFarlane that moderate elements in Iran would help free Americans hostages in Lebanon in exchange for arms. Then, in September of 1985 the Israelis, acting with US approval, delivered two planesloads of weapons to Iran. Within days hostage Benjamin Weir was released. In January of 1986 President Reagan secretly signed an executive order lifting the Iranian arms embargo and thus allowing weapon sales to Iran. Meanwhile, the arms continue to arrive in Iran. In May, McFarlane and Oliver North traveled to Teheran in a plane carrying yet more arms; Father Lawrence Jenco was released in Lebanon two months later. More arms shipments in August and October lead to the released of David Jacobson, the final hostage freed. When information about the arms-for-hostages trade becomes public, President Reagan fired Oliver North and national security advisor John Poindexter resigned. Both men later pleaded the 5th amendment and refused to testify before a congressional commission designed to investigate the Iran dealings. In early December of 1986 Attorney General Edwin Meese revealed that the money from the sales was funneled to the Contras in Central America. If this is true then the arms sales was a clear violation of the law. Amid all the criticism and accusations President Reagan's popularity has taken a beating. His approval rating dropped to his all time low of 44%.

Giants Win Super Bowl

The NFL season began with the Chicago Bears favored to repeat as world champions. However, the Bears soon fell by the wayside and the NY Giants emerged as the NFC Champions. In the AFC the Denver Broncos earned their Super Bowl berth with a thrilling 23-20 victory over Cleveland in overtime. Going into the game the Giants were favored by 9½ points; however, they trailed the Broncos 10-9 at halftime. In the second half though the Giants pulled away as quarterback Phil Simms threw 3 touchdowns and the Giants won 39-20. Quarterback Simms also was named the Super Bowl MVP.

Hiler Edges Ward

On the night of November 4 it appeared as though Republican incumbent Congressman John Hiler had been defeated by Democrat Tom Ward in his reelection bid for the 3rd district Congressional seat. However, the next day some votes had been found that had not been counted in the final returns and thus Hiler claimed victory with a 66-vote margin. Democrat Ward immediately filed for a recount. The recount, headed by newly elected Secretary of State Evan Bayh consumed 77 days before Hiler was finally declared the official winner by a 47 vote margin. Bayh's leadership of the recount commission impressed many political experts and made him the odds-on favorite in the race for governor in 1988, should he decide to run.

The Good Doctor?

The Drama Club's first production this year was "The Good Doctor". During this Comedy, the main charater, a Russian writer, proceeds to tell the audience of some of his possible plots. These performed plots consisted of a man blowing a sneeze out of proportion, a woman tricking her servant, a defenseless woman threatening a banker, and two old war buddies fighting about the perfect dinner. These skits along with others formed NorthWood's version of "The Good Doctor".

↑ Is that really Steph Comer behind those glasses?

← As we all can see, Rhonda Yoder expertly applies her make-up.

Senior Leadership

At NorthWood High School, we have many different means of senior leadership. There is the Senior Class Officers, Student Council, and Executive Council, but probably the most effective is the Senior class. The senior class provides leadership and influences the underclassmen.

Their behavior reflects upon the high school in both positive and negative ways. The senior leadership goes far beyond the classroom and into the athletic activities. This year's athletic teams have been more successful than in past years due to outstanding leadership.

↑ Riding a motorcycle was the "in" thing to do this year.

↑ Cars and motorcycles weren't the only vehicles driven — a dune buggy was an added extra.

↑ Kris Miller, Julie Ramer, and Lisa Replogle showed a classier side for the parade

The last week of school for seniors was filled with fun and excitement. The senior awards night started off the week. There were many scholarships given along with many department awards. The senior parade started the next day. There was everything from trucks to motorcycles. The highlight came when Phil Wilson's truck overheated and everyone piled into a fellow senior's truck and continued on.

↑ Mr. Bonacorsi gives Jessica Billey an academic award.

↑ Phil Wilson, the class President, gave Krys Adkins the award for the female that represented the class Motto the best.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

May 2, 1987 the Junior-Senior Prom was held at Port-A-Pit Banquet Hall at 7:30 p.m. The theme of the prom was "Stand By Me". The day started out dreary and rainy, but by 6:00 the sky was clear. At 10:00 the dance began and Prom King Mickey Marks and Queen Rhonda Yoder started with the first dance. The prom ended at 12:00. To all, the 1986-1987 prom was a big success.

The 1986 volleyball season was one of the best ever for the Panthers. Coach Jan Schrock saw her girls win the Elkhart Memorial Invitational and finish second in the Concord Invitational early in the season. Things got better as the Red Slam claimed their 2nd straight sectional championship with a dramatic win over Goshen. At the Mishawaka regional the NorthWood girls earned their way into the finals by defeating St. Joe, however in the finals they were defeated by Mishawaka in a heartbreaker 15-13, 10-15, 11-15. The Panthers were led by Terrie Klotz who was the team's captain as well as MVP. Four of the team members were chosen to the NLC all-conference team. The Red Slam finished with an outstanding 24-4 record.

When the 1986 football season started in early August, the team was looking for a year like never before. And as the season progressed, they saw themselves accomplished feats that had previously been doubted by many fans. Early in the year the Panthers beat Northridge 28-0 to give coach Andrews his 100th career victory. The Black Crunch also shut-out arch-rival Goshen 13-0 in a game filled with much emotion and excitement. However, one week later the Panthers were defeated by #1 ranked Wawasee 0-8. The North-Wood football team finished the regular season 7-1 and were ready for another showdown with Wawasee in the sectional. Before a fired up home crowd the Panthers defeated the #1 ranked Warriors 14-0. With this big upset the Black Crunch took it all the way to the state finals defeating along the way Norwell, Hammond Gavit, and West Lafayette. Unfortunately, the gridders were defeated at the Hoosier Dome by Indianapolis Cathedral 12-0, which ended their memorable season with a 12-2 record.

The 1986-1987 basketball season was truly "A Season on the Brink" for the NorthWood basketball program. Time and again the Panthers fought until the end only to lose in the final minutes. Coach Phil Lechlitner saw his Panthers nearly upset state ranked Concord and Penn. The biggest victory of the season came with NorthWood's dramatic 38-35 victory over arch rival Goshen before an Hawaiian dressed student body. After starting out with a record of 2-3 the NorthWood's girls basketball team regained their composure and won 16 of their next 18 games before finally bowing out in double overtime to St. Joe at the Elkhart regional. The most exciting game of the year came in the sectional championship game against Bremen. The lady Panthers fell behind early but rallied to edge out a 59-58 victory in overtime. The lady Panthers were lead by MVP junior Christy Wesolek while seniors Cindy Harter and Terrie Klotz were the co-captains. Sophomores JoAnn Miller and Deena Jones were named first team all-conference while Christy Wesolek and junior Lisa Hahn were named to the second team. state wide wrestling fans filed into Market Squard to again cheer on their favorite wrestler. It was a time of tears, cheers and even fears the second session ended. For some it was another chance at the title, for others it brought the end of their season and in many cases the end of a four year wrestling career. Our cheers and tears went out to NorthWood's Ryan Miller as he was defeated in overtime by Jeff Talbert 4-0. Ryan represented NorthWood with determination and dignity. Although he may not have brought home the official state title, Ryan will always be a winner to those who watched him wrestle.

Led by a determined group of underclassmen the NorthWood girls gymnastics team struggled to a 2-8 record. Despite the frustrating record the girls gymnastics team made many improvements and showed great progress for a young team. The girls were lead by Co-Captains Missie Slabaugh and Christine LaRue while Sophomore Lynn Geyer was named the team's MVP. GOLF

Coach Jay Taylor saw his young golf team work very hard to achieve a successful 11-10 record in the 1987 golf season. Despite some difficult losses the Panther golf team pulled two upsets by defeating Concord and Mishawaka. The Panthers placed 5th in the conference championship with a conference record of 2-4. Senior Rex Tobias was again named the teams MVP while Gina Yoder, the only girl on the squad, received the Sportsmanship award.

1987 was NW girls softball team's second year in existence. Despite the 4-14 record the girls showed much improvement over the course of the season. The girls were led by captains Christy Wesolek, Cathy Beeson, and Melodie Graber. Christy Wesolek was also named the teams MVP while Jenny Weaver got the most improved award. The girls softball team keeps getting a little better year after year.

BASEBALL

1987 was a rebuilding year for coach Riley and the Panther baseball program. After losing many key performers the Panthers had a lot of young players with little experience. However, after a lot of hard work they managed to finish with a respectable record. After a slow start the Panthers achieved big wins over Bethany Christian, Goshen, and Bremen. With the rebuilding year behind them the future looks bright for NorthWood baseball.

The 1986-87 Drama year consisted of the two annual plays: fall and spring. The fall production was "The Good Doctor" and the spring play was the traditional musical — "Oklahoma". MATMAIDS

At other schools the chance to be a mat-maid is no big deal — it's usually on a volunteer basis. But at NorthWood it is different. The chance to be a mat-maid is somewhat of an honor. You are selected out of your class by the sophomore and junior mat-maids. The job of a mat-maid then does not correspond with its name by having them roll and clean up the mats before and after meets, rather they keep stats, video tape and show their support by making posters and locker decorations.

FFA stands for Future Farmers of America. This club offers the opportunity for those interested to obtain the knowledge and experience needed to proudly become a future farmer of America. NorthWood's chapter members were very active this year in many area activities. This past summer they helped with the Young McDonald's Farm at the Elkhart County Fair. The dairy judging team placed 6th at a contest in Harrisburg, PA. FFA held a seed sale and a slave auction to raise money. Some of the awards awarded this year were: Ron Paul — Chapter Star Farmer, Christina Hunsberger — Dekalb Leadership Award, Ed Pippenger — Sheets Memorial Award, and Murry Weaver — Star Green Hand.

"FCA is more than just a club for some 'dumb jocks' and 'dull jockets'. It's a group that is designed to assist the students at NorthWood with social and spiritual difficulties by providing solid advice and direction from other students and staff members. The club is in charge of the coat check at home basketball games. This is where they earn money to attend camps and conferences along with supporting additional worthy causes. It's a great place to make new friends and get away from the ordinary school schedule. If you've never been to a club, try it some Thursday morning. STUDENT TRAINERS

The 1986-87 school year was the first year North-Wood offered the Student Trainer program. Student trainers are students who dedicate much of their extracurricular time to helping athletes in our school. For a period of time, these students are lectured on the signs of common sports-related injuries and the procedures taken in treating those injuries. The student trainers do more than wrap ankles; they are part of the team. Trainers are required to be present at every Varsity game, attend several junior varsity and freshman games, and make sure the players have the water they need. Being a student trainer is a tough job but also can be a lot of fun. As Kim Preston puts it, "It was really neat to be part of the team. I hope that we helped them by our encouragement."

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council, eight students from each class, wasn't all just "fun and games". They worked hard planning and organizing many very memorable school events. Some of those activities were Homecoming, Sweetheart, the prom, student council exchange programs with other schools, and finally the "senior events" at the end of the year. Those included the breakfast and annual picnic. During the exchange program members of our student council traded places with students from other schools for one day. They brought back ideas for ways to make NorthWood even a better place to attend school. Overall, our Student Council worked hard to get important activities organized.

CAMPUS LIFE

Campus Life Club at NorthWood is one of the largest attended activities. Campus Life met every Monday night and was open for anyone who wanted to join. It was usually held at one of the members house, where members discussed issues from dating, and peer-pressure, to insight, and Christ. Over spring break Campus Life visited Florida. To raise money, they could participate in the pizza sales, the rock-a-thon and the roller-skating-a-thon. In Florida, many hours were spent on the beaches while one day was left for the famous Walt Disney World.

Spanish Club began as a result of student interest in travel. A group of nine students and Mrs. Huber toured Mexico City and Cancun over Spring Break. The spanish club, including present and former students, met to give the tour group a chance to tell of their experiences and share memorabilia. The purpose of the spanish club is to promote interest in many areas of the hispanic culture including dance, fiestas, films and slides, foods and other forms of art and culture.

The library media and auditorium staff are often overlooked. Their roles in our extra-curricular activities are phenomenal. While sitting in the auditorium, have you ever wondered, "Who exactly is running the lights?" or maybe you've inquired as to who it was that recorded your performance in the last school play. AGRICULTURE

The agriculture department of NorthWood High School is often overlooked. People view it as a class for farmers. Well . . . it is. But even so, this class is a very important one. America needs successful farmers and the NorthWood Ag is playing a role in the development of our future farmers.

— Even though there is a lot to learn in the agriculture class, it is not all hard work; there are some fun times too.

Art by definition is a specialized skill or knowledge; a representational art; a branch of academic learning. This definition is shown to be true by the NW Art Department. A representational Art development is obtained through painting, graphics, and sculptures all of which are classes offered at NorthWood. A chance to better your artistic skills is offered also, along with an opportunity to expand your academic horizons.

BUSINESS

Business classes are very popular at NorthWood. With so many classes to choose from, nearly everyone finds one they are interested in. ENGLISH

As the saying goes, "The inquiring mind wants to know". In English class, even those students without inquiring minds get to know, as English teachers strive to instill the correct way to spell, speak, and write, nine months at a time, into the students mind. English is a required course for four years at North-Wood, and students are fortunate to have a wide variety of class offerings from Shakespeare to science fiction, or writing poetry to writing speeches.

† Whether you believe it or not Andy, this is a normal day for Mr. Beachy.

Come on Chris and Allen, follow Kandi's example . . . Do your work!

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

↑ A new player?!

↑ Scott Beer finds startling information in the lab . . .

↑ . . . while German students also find class exciting!

Learning a foreign language is an experience like no other, maybe like learning to talk all over again, but much more difficult. The experience can be made much easier when there are others struggling along the road with you. In a foreign language class, you not only learn the language but you learn the culture and way of the people who speak the native tongue. This may include traditions, professions, holiday customs and home life.

Students can also choose from Sociology, and Psychology, World History, Cadet Teaching, and several others. Some of the projects done in these classes are the freshmen civics paper, exploratory teaching classroom training, and the general economics housing project.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

↑ A couple of senior guys measure wood.

↑ Chad Flickinger is ready to work hard on his car.

↑ Scott Birk looks thrilled.

Students at NorthWood can choose from many different industrial arts classes. In graphic arts they print programs and pamphlets used by the school's club organizations. The woods classes make cabinets, gun racks, and other useful household items. Drafting students work to develop working plans for various projects.

DAWNING GENERATION

The choir room came to "life" everyday during fourth period as NorthWood's swing choir went through their musical routines. Sounds from "Kryie" to "Spish Splash" could be heard. Performances this year included Panthers on Parade, Christmas concert, Chesterton and Watsetka competitions, district and state contests, Soundsations, Spring Concert, and graduation. Programs were also given to numerous community groups. Mrs. Gillam was assisted by Cathy Munno Watkins who was the choreographer for some of the songs.

↑ "Spish Splash I was taking a bath . . ."

↑ Being comfortable singing solos is not unusual with DG members, as shown by Scott Beer

CHOIR

↑ Baron Watson sings a solo at the Spring concert.

↑ Our director, Cathy Gilliam

— DG had a different set of clothes and entrance for each set of songs.

Mrs. Cathy Gilliam was kept busy working with the two school choirs. The Trebletones were a group of thirty-three freshmen girls. The fourty member Choralaires were comprised of guys in grades 9-12 and girls grades 10-12. Both choirs participated in Panthers on Parade, district ensemble contest, graduation and the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts.

↑ No, this is not the "normal" dress for the band. It's a spirit day. The band has been noted for their eagerness to do things out of the ordinary.

The band had a very good year marching at several invitationals. They won several first place awards and advanced all the way to Regionals. The annual Christmas and spring concerts went smoothly as always. The spring concert was quite a unique combination of selections. The first consisted of a "formal" concert in which many excerpts from Beethoven's work was played. The second was a "sidewalk cafe" style. The band played more "pop" music which included themes from the 50's and 60's and "Rocky" motion pictures.

↑ After a concert, the seniors are recognized for their four long years in the NWHS band.

↑ Under the direction of Paul Milliman, the band plays at Soundsations.

GRAIN EQUIPMENT COMPANY

In everything we do,
it's people just like you who set us apart from the crowd.

It all started in a garage almost 35 years ago in Elkhart, Indiana.

That was when we built our first recreational vehicle.

Today, Holiday Rambler's RV division occupies a total of twenty-two buildings where four complete lines of quality-built motorhomes, mini-motorhomes, travel trailers and fifth wheels are manufactured.

Other divisions at Holiday Rambler manufacture and distribute a wide variety of products including RV parts and accessories, commercial vehicles, automotive van conversions, recreational homes, contemporary office furniture, molded plastic products, as well as custom cabinetry and high-pressure laminate sheet goods.

By keeping all our divisions headquartered in northern Indiana, we've been able to maintain a very close "family relationship" with all our people. This has greatly helped maintain Holiday Rambler's high standards of quality.

Standards that have made Holiday Rambler the largest privately owned manufacturer of family camping vehicles in America.

And have made all our other divisions some of the most respected companies in their particular areas.

Under the direction of Mrs. Koremstra, advisor, the yearbook staff has worked hard to produce the 1987 Logue. Each member was assigned a certain section of the yearbook or a special related job. During the summer of 1986, Michele Beck and Kris Miller, co-editors, attended a yearbook conference camp at Butler University. Even though yearbook consisted of long hours and hard work, the staff benefited from their rewarding experiences and memorable events.

"Hats Off . . ." to our fellow classmates at NorthWood this year for all of their accomplishments. It has been an outstanding year in academics, in the fine arts, and athletics. We appreciated the guidance from a supportive faculty and staff.

"Hats Off . . ." to a great LOGUE staff. It took much time and effort to complete this book. We are grateful for all the supervision from our advisor Sandy Korenstra, and the cooperation Mr. Bonacorsi gave us. Bob Mahl and Vickie Sanders were our representatives from Newsfoto Publishing Company. Brian Balasa and Sherrie Yoder were our very able photographers. They were busy taking pictures at all school events. Special thanks are to coaches and faculty members that submitted statistics and material which made this a more informative book. We also thank all the businesses, merchants, and NorthWood patrons who purchased ads. Without their financial support it would be impossible to publish a yearbook. We hope you have enjoyed reminiscing with us as we took our "Hats Off" . . . to the 1986-87 school year.

After the many years of grade school, middle school, and high school the time had finally come.

the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of people with mental health problems in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has set out a vision for the future of mental health care, which includes a focus on preventing mental health problems, supporting people with mental health problems in the community, and providing specialist services for people with severe mental health problems. The Department of Health (1999) also states that the future of mental health care should be based on a partnership between the NHS, local authorities, and the voluntary sector.
